v.

M&T BANK CORPORATION,

ORDER OF PRELIMINARY
PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

19-CV-01152-LJV-JJM

This action has been referred to me by Order of Hon. Lawrence J. Vilardo for entry of a Case Management Order, in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. ("Rule") 16 and Local Rule 16.

Each party, including any party appearing without counsel, shall appear telephonically on August 18, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. for the purpose of entry of a Case Management Order as required by Rule 16(b). To access the teleconference, the parties shall dial (888) 808-6929 and enter access code 1533000# sufficiently in advance of the conference. Failure to be on the teleconference at the scheduled time may be considered a failure to participate in the conference.

The parties are expected to follow the attached chambers procedures (also available on the court's website at www.nywd.uscourts.gov).

All parties should note that the case is subject to mandatory pretrial mediation as required by the court's Alternative Dispute Resolution Plan ("ADR Plan"). The parties are urged to consult the ADR Plan and a related document, Alternative Dispute Resolution Procedures, copies of which are available from the Clerk of the Court and on the court's website.

As required by Rule 26(f), the parties shall confer at least 21 days prior to the Rule 16(b) hearing as scheduled above for (1) preparation of the required Proposed Discovery Plan, and (2) to propose to the court a Case Management Order that will establish outside cut-off dates for the further progress of this case (see attachment). The proposed Discovery Plan and Case Management Order shall, pursuant to Rule 26(f), be submitted to the court in writing at least 14 days prior to the Rule 16(b) conference. In preparing the proposed Case Management Order, please bear in mind that, absent extraordinary circumstances, dispositive motions are due within 12 months of the Rule 16(b) conference, meaning that all discovery (fact and expert) must be completed prior to that deadline.

All parties should be prepared to address at the conference any anticipated electronic discovery issues that may arise.

The parties are encouraged to consider the attached consent to proceed before a United States Magistrate Judge in a civil case pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §636(c). If the parties wish to consent, they must execute the consent form and return it to the Clerk for processing. However, no substantive adverse consequences will result should the parties elect not to consent.

SO ORDERED.

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO CONSENT TO DISPOSITION
OF A CIVIL CASE
BY A UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C. §636(c) that, if all parties to this civil action (or their attorneys) consent, a full-time United States Magistrate Judge of this Court may conduct any or all proceedings therein, including the conducting of a jury or non-jury trial and order entry of a final judgment. A copy of the appropriate consent form is attached.

Your decision to consent or not to consent to a referral of your case to a U.S. Magistrate Judge is entirely voluntary. Unless all parties have consented, no District Court Judge or Magistrate Judge is to be informed of anyone's decision to consent or not to consent. NO consent form will be accepted for filing unless there is tendered a signed Consent form for EVERY party to the action. Therefore, in actions involving more than one plaintiff, or more than one defendant, one party must collect all the consents and file them together.

Even though all parties consent to disposition of the case by a Magistrate Judge, this opportunity is subject to the calendar requirements of the Court. Accordingly, it is subject to approval by the District Judge assigned to the case.

Pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C. §636(c)(3) any appeal from a judgment in a case decided by a Magistrate Judge lies directly to the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit.

Procedures relating to these matters are set forth in Local Rule 73 of the Local Rules for the Western District of New York.

ORDER OF REFERENCE

Chambers Procedures

Motions

Unless previously provided with a date by the court, motions shall not contain return dates. Courtesy copies of all motion papers shall be provided to chambers. Oral argument will be scheduled by the court if deemed necessary or requested by one of the parties. If a motion is not decided within 60 days of the time it is fully submitted, the parties are encouraged to bring this to the Court's attention.

Requests for Adjournments or Enlargements of Time

All such requests shall indicate whether the motion is on consent, set forth good cause for the request, and indicate the number of prior adjournments/extensions. If seeking to extend a criminal appearance or deadline, such request shall also address the exclusion of time from the Speedy Trial Act calendar. Parties shall also provide proposed deadlines or dates/times that are mutually agreeable to all parties.

Discovery Disputes

If discovery disputes arise, the parties shall initially advise me of the dispute via letter or e-mail (copying opposing counsel). Upon review of the letter, I will generally schedule a conference with the parties to attempt to resolve the issue informally. If the dispute is not resolved informally, the parties will be given the opportunity to file a formal motion. This informal discovery dispute resolution process is not expedited motion practice. Therefore, informal submissions should provide a brief overview of the issue with supporting documentation and the parties' positions. Parties do not waive arguments by failing to raise them in their informal submissions. However, utilizing this informal discovery process does not act to automatically toll proceedings, including Case Management Order deadlines, discovery deadlines, or scheduled depositions or inspections. For any disputes that require prompt attention, the parties should proceed by motion.

Submissions to Chambers

Judge McCarthy accepts letter submissions via mail or e-mail only, not by fax. Any e-mail submissions should be sent to mccarthy@nywd.uscourts.gov.

Participation by Telephone

In civil matters, parties may generally participate via telephone upon advance notice to chambers unless the proceeding involves taking testimony, requires the exchange of documents, or otherwise ordered by the court. Those electing to participate by telephone shall notify my chambers no later than 24 hours in advance of the conference, failing which it will be assumed that they will be attending in person. In criminal matters, the parties may participate via telephone upon advance approval by the court. When telephonic participation is permitted, the court will arrange a teleconference and provide the parties with the call-in information.

Absent truly exceptional circumstances, any motion for an extension shall be made at least one week prior to the deadline sought to be extended. The parties are reminded that "a finding of 'good cause' depends on the diligence of the moving party". Parker v. Columbia Pictures Industries, 204 F.3d 326, 340 (2d Cir. 2000).

SO ORDERED.
